HOWDEE PARTNERS! Updates from the States

'YEE-HA' TO YOU!

It's Me Again, About to Return From a Quick Break

I hope this newsletter finds you well and thriving in your business ventures! I'm not far off returning to Blighty after a trip to America - although I wouldn't call it a holiday as my phone is never off and I can't stop replying to emails, I literally love it too much! I have to say the standard of coffee over here is...erm...variable to say the least. I swear one cup was actually gravy, but hey ho!

Anyway, I've got some fantastic news to share, and I couldn't be more excited about this idea that will take our collaboration to new heights!

INTRODUCING YOUR BESPOKE DIGITAL MARKETING TEMPLATES

I know how essential marketing is for promoting your brand and connecting with your audience. To help you succeed even further, I'm thrilled to present you with bespoke marketing templates crafted exclusively for your business! Much like the personalised Urnex labels we already provide, these templates are tailor-made to suit your unique style and requirements, making your promotions stand out like never before and helping to generate interest in the products you source from us. NEW WEBSITE FEATURE TO FURTHER IMPROVE OUR CUSTOMER SERVICE

I'm delighted to introduce you to an exciting addition to our service – the all-new Instant Live Chat feature on our website. Designed with you in mind, this fresh feature reaffirms our commitment to excellent customer service and more importantly, our promise to always be there when you need us.

No gimmicky chatbots with odd names like 'The Caffeinator' or 'Bean Buddy Barry' that don't quite understand your question and just direct you to some 'helpful' articles - you'll get authentic, human-to-human conversation.

That being said, it's just another way to get in touch. As always, you can reach out via email or phone - after all, we love hearing from you and seeing how you're getting on. As ever, I'm here, ready to chat and lend an ear.

YOUR SUPPORT IS PRECIOUS & CAN HELP US BOTH

As my valued customer, I'd love your support in two small yet significant ways that will go really far in strengthening our bond and help your business tick along nicely:

1) Follow & Engage on Social Media

We're ramping up our social media game, and your engagement means the world to me! A bigger presence in the digital world can only benefit us both so if you haven't already, please take a moment to FOLLOW us on our social accounts and INTERACT with the content. You'll find us on:

LinkedIn

Twitter

Facebook

2) Share Your Experience Through Reviews

Your review has the power to make a significant impact on our journey. I'd be immensely grateful if you could take a moment to leave us a review on Google and/or Facebook. Your honest feedback will not only inspire us but also help others discover the value of our services.
